Date: July 1, 2015
Subject: NEPO - 2015 Building Healthy Communities (BHC) Summit

The Network of Ethnic Physician Organizations Leadership (NEPO) Summit is an opportunity for physicians, public health professionals, and community leaders who work with underserved communities to learn about emerging health care policy issues, share best practices on how to reduce health disparities and increase access to health care services for the populations they serve.

This year's Summit will be held at the Riverside Convention Center, in Riverside, California with rooms available at the historic Mission Inn and Spa. CME credits will be offered and the agenda will include a thought-provoking array of plenary sessions and workshops. The conference sessions will begin at 2:00 pm on Friday, September 18th and end on Sunday September 20th. At the NEPO Summit you will:

- Learn about key health policy issues
- Identify best practices
Receive leadership training to strengthen multicultural communications and cultural competency in clinical care
- Increase collaboration with community based organizations
- Create and engage physician community advocates
