Pharmacy Pay-for-Performance: Enrollment Required

Dear IEHP Pharmacy Provider,

This is the last reminder about the modified Pharmacy Pay-For-Performance (P4P) program focusing on Drug Utilization Review (DUR) alerts starting on January 1, 2018. In order to be eligible for Pharmacy P4P payments, each individual pharmacy will need to be enrolled in the program. Please note that all pharmacies previously enrolled in pharmacy P4P program will be automatically re-enrolled and be eligible to receive P4P payments for 2018.

To sign up for Pharmacy P4P program, all pharmacies new to the program will have to meet eligibility criteria as follow:

- Must be a Contracted IEHP (via IEHP contracted PBM) Community Pharmacy Provider
- IEHP Pharmacy Provider in good standing (free of outstanding fraud, waste and abuse investigation)
- Store location within San Bernardino and Riverside Counties
- Annual IEHP Rx Volume over 1,000 (500/6 months)
- Pharmacy must be in business during the entire evaluation period

After confirming eligibility, please submit a W-9 form with a letter stating that you want to enroll in Pharmacy P4P program.

For complete details of program description, please see the Pharmacy P4P program home page on IEHP website:
